

HOUSE SWEEPED AWAY AND INMATES DIE

Storm at Pittsburg Followed By Another Horror—Heavy Rain Did Much Damage in Indiana—Ohio Fruit Crop Badly Hurt—Pennsylvania Low Lands Flooded.

— Miles, six-year-old daughter of George Miles, struck in the head with a brick.

Mrs. Thompson of Carbon alley; struck by falling chimney.

Unknown stable boy; blown against a cart and broke two ribs.

Samuel McKinney kept a boarding house at Cecil for the accommodations of oil men and miners. There were thirteen people in the house when the water commenced to rise, but no serious danger was apprehended. Suddenly the house, a two-story frame, was washed from its foundation into the seething waters and rapidly carried downstream.

Below the site of the house about 200 yards stands an old-fashioned country bridge which spans the stream. The house crashed against this structure, the roof was torn off and the rest of the building was crushed like an eggshell. Higgins and W. B. Whitney were caught between the first and second floors. Higgins died there, but Whitney made a most miraculous escape. Just below the bridge the wreckage of the house struck on a sandbar with those of the party who were still alive, clinging to the pieces with scarcely a hope of being rescued.

Thomas Hayes, Vincent Wilkinson and others formed a "rescuing party. Whitney was rescued while fast in the wreckage by Wilkinson, who also dragged the body of Higgins from its lodgement, Samuel McKinney was also saved by Wilkinson. After assisting in other rescues Wilkinson heard a cry for help from the opposite side of the stream. He made the effort to swim across with a rope. When about halfway over a log struck him on the head and broke his neck. His body was found several hundred yards below, lodged in a tree.

Clyde Beatty was another hero of the disaster who lost his life. He made strenuous efforts to save Margaret McKinney and Jennie Holmes and had them lodged in a tree, when a wave came along and swept all three to death. Beatty had several opportunities to save himself, but refused to leave his weaker companions. The bodies have all been recovered.

Wright, the colored liveryman, while attempting to drive across a bridge at Murray Hill, was caught by the high water of Chartiers creek, near Carnegie, and drowned.

At Ellwood, Lawrence county, the pumping station was struck by lightning and Charles Mitchell, the engineer, paralyzed. His condition is critical. At Turtle Creek a new house was struck by lightning and demolished. Four children, who had sought shelter in the house from the storm, escaped injury. At West Newton the buildings of the West Newton Ground Cement and Lime company were crushed like egg shells by falling debris from the overhanging cliffs. The loss will amount to several thousand dollars. At Penn station a two-story house belonging to John Driestadt was completely demolished. The family was not hurt. Reports from the surrounding country states that the storm has wrought great destruction for miles around. In some places houses were removed from their foundation, but no further loss of life is reported.

DAMAGE IN INDIANA.

Crops Ruined by the Deluge—Houses and Barns Injured.

Frankfort, Ind., July 29.—Clinton county was visited by a rain and thunderstorm Monday night that was the most severe in its history, doing great damage to the crops. Prairie creek was converted into a river that for several hours threatened to tear away the six bridges that span it in different parts of the city. Houses and stores were flooded, the water in many of the buildings being three and four feet deep. Farmers' stock and chickens perished.

Muncie, Ind., July 29.—A frightful windstorm, with heavy rain, passed over Delaware county early Tuesday morning. A half dozen houses and barns were injured by lightning, but no one was injured. The Hemingray glass factory was damaged nearly $1,000 and the Hoover Window-glass factory was damaged. White river rose six feet in as many hours and is out of its banks and still increasing. Thousands of bushels of oats are under water and ruined, and one-half of the big potato crop is ruined.

SERIOUS WASHOUTS.

White River Valley Experiencing a Disastrous Flood.

Anderson, Ind., July 30.—The White river valley from Muncie to Indianapolis is experiencing the greatest flood for six years. There are washouts at Alexandria and Tipton. The city electric light plant at Alexandria is entirely surrounded by water.

Benjamin Ganoway, an engineer at the Indiana box factory, was struck by lightning and will die. Benton Rose and Andrew Hayworth of Connersville became confused and collided with a Pan-Handle train and were killed. Families had to be rescued in boats from the lowlands.

Reports from Lebanon, Frankton and Elmwood are that the waters are alarmingly high. From West Muncie, Ind., it is reported that a big reservoir broke and a massive iron road bridge was carried away.

Ohio Fruit Crop Damaged.

Newark, O., July 29.—A disastrous storm swept over Licking county Tuesday morning, doing many dollars' worth of damage to fences, fruit trees and grain. It is estimated that from a fourth to a third of the fruit crop is destroyed, while corn is blown down. Roofs of barns were blown off, but no injury to people is reported.

All Low Sections Flooded.

Uniontown, Pa., July 29.—The loss in Fayette county will reach $100,000. All the low sections were flooded. People had to leave their houses and see their furniture ruined. The railroads sustained some bad washouts.

Only Ten of Her Crew and Officers Saved from Death.

Chee Foo, July 29.—The German third-class cruiser Itlis was lost in a typhoon on July 23, ten miles northward of the Shan Tung promontory, which is about seventy-five miles southeast of here. Ten of the men were saved. All of the others, including the officers, perished.

The Itlis was a small cruiser of 489 tons displacement, with two ten and one half centimeter guns and two light guns. She was launched in 1878, having cost about $138,000. The number of men on board is unknown here.

Will Not Admit Anarchists.

London, July 29.—The International Socialist and Trades Union congress decided Tuesday to exclude anarchists. The anarchists became furious with rage and after fiery remarks from their leaders they made a combined rush for the doors of the hall, overturned the doorkeeper and poured into the galleries in spite of all opposition. The convention was adjourned in confusion.

Firemen's Association Tourney.

Naperville, Ill., July 29.—The eighth annual tournament of the Illinois Firemen's association opened here Tuesday. Large delegations of citizens, and in some instances the band of the town, accompanied the departments in the procession. There were sixteen teams in the procession, a large contingent of firemen not being connected with department teams.

New Trial for Scott Jackson.

Frankfort, Ky., July 29.—The papers in the case of Scott Jackson, convicted of the murder of Pearl Bryant, near Fort Thomas, Ky., were filed Tuesday in the court of appeals. The court is asked to grant a new trial on the ground of specified errors.

Crabtree Held for Murder.

Cairo, Ill., July 29.—The remains of I. N. Coffee, who was stabbed and killed by G. P. Crabtree Sunday night, will be buried at Blandville, Ky. The coroner's jury returned a verdict as to the cause of Coffee's death to the effect that it was unjustifiable homicide, and Crabtree will be held in the county jail without bond until the next term of the circuit court unless he asks for a writ of habeas corpus, which he is not likely to do.

New York Democratic Convention.

New York, July 29.—The democratic state convention will be called to meet at Buffalo Sept. 15.

JAMESON IS GUILTY THE JURYMEN SAY

TRANSVAAL RAIDER SENTENCED TO PRISON.

Will Have Fifteen Months Leisure to think Over the Failure of His Brilliant Scheme—His Associates Escape With Shorter Terms—The Judge's Charge.

London, July 29.—The jury in the Jameson South Africa case returned a verdict that all the defendants had been found guilty of violating the neutrality laws in invading the territory of the South African Republic. Besides Dr. Jameson, the defendants were: Major Sir John Willoughby, Colonel R. Grey, Colonel H. F. White, Major R. White, and Captain Henry F. Coventry.

Dr. Jameson was sentenced to fifteen months' imprisonment without labor, Sir John Willoughby to ten months' imprisonment, Major R. White to seven months' imprisonment and Captain Henry F. Coventry, Colonel R. Grey and Colonel H. F. White to five months' imprisonment each.

The court was packed with people. Arguments having been concluded the chief justice, Baron Russell of Killowen began his summing up. Lord Russell's remarks were distinctly hostile to the defendants. He began by pointing out that there was no doubt the prisoners had taken part in or abetted the proceedings at Pitsani and Mafeking, where the invading forces were mustered preparatory to entering the Transvaal. It was entirely unimportant, in the opinion of Lord Russell, whether the foreign enlistment act had been proclaimed at the places named in 1895. There was no doubt the expedition was of a military character, and whether it was aimed to overthrow the Transvaal government or to force a change of the laws in the interests of others, it was equally an expedition against a friendly state.

MR. LEVERING ACCEPTS.

Will Run for President on the Prohibition Ticket.

Baltimore, Md., July 29.—Joshua Levering of this city was on Tuesday evening notified of his nomination for the presidency of the United States by the prohibition party. Prior to the notification the Maryland prohibitionists held their state convention and named electors in the various Maryland districts. O. W. Stewart of Illinois, as chairman of the committee on notification, delivered the address informing Mr. Levering of his nomination. The latter read from manuscript his letter of acceptance. Of the two important questions of the campaign he said:

"The United States cannot afford without dishonor to have money bearing its stamp inferior to that of any country on the globe. The question of the maintenance of the credit of the government, on which its honor is based and for which every one worthy of the name of an American citizen is or should be profoundly jealous, is one of vast importance.

"Again, a proper adjustment of the tariff, so that labor can have its just protection without at the same time giving undue protection to the manufacturing interests at the expense of the great consuming portion of our people, is worthy of profound consideration and early solution."

Armenians in Strikers' Places.

Lynn, Mass., July 29.—The discharge of the lasters and other employes at Thomas E. Plant & Co.'s shoe factory here caused more trouble, and the firm called upon the police to restrict the union pickets, who are watching the factory, the principal streets, and the depots in order to intercept all non-union shoemakers who may be looking for work. The firm claims that these pickets are interfering with its business. A score of Armenians arrived from New York city and went to work at the factory, despite the efforts of the union men to induce them not to do so.

Big Steel Works Are Unionized.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 29.—The "Oliver's" Tenth street iron mill, which has been non-union since 1892, Tuesday signed the Amalgamated Puddlers' and Finishers' scale, and 450 will be put to work on Thursday. The increase for puddlers will be 50 cents a day—from $4 to $4.50. Finishers will be increased in proportion. The Oliver's signature is considered a big victory for the workmen. There are now four remaining mills here not paying union wages. They are all expected to get into line within two weeks.

Stevenson Declares for the Chicago Platform and Bryan—Re-Elected.

Detroit, Mich., July 29.—The meeting of the democratic state central committee Tuesday was stormy, and

REFUSED TO FUSE WITH POPOCRATS

INDIANA POPULISTS REJECT THE SCHEME.

Victory for the "Middle-of-the-Road" Men—Mark Hanna Pays a Visit to New York—Busy Day for Bryan—Orators to Be Matched—Political News.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 29.—The populists of Indiana met in state convention Tuesday and decided to stay in the "middle of the road." A platform was put out and a full state ticket nominated. The work of the St. Louis convention was indorsed and many bitter things said of the democratic nominee for vice-president. The action of the convention is a disappointment to the free silver democrats of the state, who had hoped and believed that their ticket, or at least their nominee for governor, B. F. Shively of South Bend, who was at one time a populist, would be indorsed.

The republicans are jubilant, believing, as they do, that if the election in the state is close the presence of a populist ticket will throw the victory to the republicans. Two years ago the populists cast 29,330 votes in the state. It is estimated that this year the straight ticket will command not less than 15,000 votes, which would nearly all go to the democrats were there no populist ticket in the field.

Both the temporary chairman, N. T. Betts of Winchester, and A. H. Mottisinger of Vincennes, spoke in favor of keeping in the "middle of the road," and their speeches had much to do with the crystallizing of the sentiment of the convention. Butts declared that Bryan was the Cincinnati of the west, and Watson the Lincoln of the west. Mr. Mottisinger warned the convention that the "politicians and the political pap-suckers are in our midst," and insisted that they ought to be hurled out of the convention.

The platform adopted follows closely the St. Louis declaration of principles and declares that the populist organization, national, state and local, "shall be maintained at all hazards." The entire day was taken up with the contest over the policy, and the nominations were postponed until the night session. Rev. Thomas Wadsworth of Daviess county, a Methodist preacher, was nominated for governor by acclamation. For lieutenant-governor A. P. Hanna, a Montgomery county farmer, was nominated.

The other nominations are: N. M. Jennings of Johnson county, for auditor of state; S. M. Holcomb, Gibson county, secretary of state; F. J. S. Robinson, Putnam county, treasurer of state; D. H. Fernandez, Madison county, attorney-general; Thomas W. Force, Martin county, reporter Supreme court; J. S. McKeever, Black county, state statistician; J. B. Freeman, Howard county, superintendent of public instruction.

BUSY DAY FOR MR. BRYAN.

Holds Long Conference with Senator Pettigrew and Chairman Lane.

Lincoln, Neb., July 29.—Mr. Bryan had Senator Pettigrew as his guest for dinner, Tuesday, and at night Charles B. Lane of California, chairman of the national silver committee, took supper with him. Senator Pettigrew came in on the morning train and went directly to Mr. Bryan's residence for a conference. He admitted that he canvassed the political situation with Mr. Bryan and Gov. Holcomb, but declined to say what was said. He was hopeful that the present tangle would be straightened out, but he was not prepared to say how it would be done. The impression is gaining ground here among the people who are in Mr. Bryan's confidence that he has little hope of Mr. Watson's relinquishing his hold on the populist ticket, and few are prepared to believe that the national populist committee will go so far as to make Mr. Watson withdraw. A leading populist who has talked with Mr. Bryan frequently in the last few days, said:

"I do not think there is any possibility that Mr. Watson will withdraw now. As a populist I do not think it would be expedient for him to withdraw. Had he declined the nomination within a day or two after the convention I think the situation might have been simplified; but now the populists in the south have become enthused over Watson's candidacy and they would never consent to his withdrawal. In my opinion Watson and Sewall will stick. In some states Sewall will be Bryan's running mate, and in others Watson will be on the ticket with him."

The state central committee of the Nebraska free-silver democracy meets in this city Thursday. Mr. Bryan will be present and advise the committee. Prominent populists from various parts of the state will also be present by invitation. At this meeting the first steps toward complete fusion between the free-silver democrats and populists will be taken. The populist state convention. At this meeting the first steps toward complete fusion between the free-silver democrats and populists will be taken. The populist state convention will be held at the meeting of the democratic convention will be fixed at the meeting.

SILVER WINS IN MICHIGAN.

Stevenson Declares for the Chicago Platform and Bryan—Re-Elected.

Detroit, Mich., July 29.—The meeting of the democratic state central committee Tuesday was stormy, and both sides claim the victory. When the committee met Mr. Stevenson, the law partner of Don M. Dickinson, presented his resignation, and said: "Gentlemen, you are now at the same point you were when you elected me chairman, and I am ready to resign my office, but only on the proviso that I may serve on some subordinate position, and work from now to the evening of election for Bryan and Sewall and the Chicago platform." He was re-elected on this speech.

For more than two hours the committee men wrangled about the matter and finally settled on Bay City as the next convention city. Hummer of the West Shore, said that Stevenson would not have been elected without his avowed indorsement of the Chicago ticket, and the gold men claim that they re-elected Stevenson to hold control of the state organization. From an outside standpoint honors appear to be about even, as the full silver representation on the committee would have given them the clear majority.

MR. HANNA GOES EAST.

Chairman of the National Republican Committee Reaches New York.

New York, July 29.—Chairman of the National Republican Committee Mark Hanna arrived in the city at 10:35 o'clock Tuesday morning. "I don't know when the republican campaign committee will meet," he said. "I am here in New York, and here's where I will stay until the meeting takes place."

"Shall your principal headquarters be here or in Chicago?"

"That," replied Mr. Hanna, "will depend."

"Shall you have an advisory committee?"

"I shall advise with everybody who knows more than I do, and there are a lot of them."

"When will the executive committee meet?"

"The first meeting of the eastern members of the committee will take place at 2 p. m. to-morrow at the Waldorf hotel."

Quay, Scott and Osborne will be present; Manley will not. Mr. Hobart is also expected. When asked whether money or the tariff was the issue predominant in the campaign, Mr. Hanna replied: "The issue of the campaign is to elect Mr. McKinley."

After Mr. Hanna had visited the various sites for headquarters, he announced that Gen. Osborne's choice of the fourth floor of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company's building at 23d street and Broadway had been selected. The headquarters will be open for business on Thursday.

During the evening a delegation from the Tariff Reform league called on Mr. Hanna and asked that he make tariff the issue, instead of the money question. Mr. Hanna said that he could not decide that question, but that the delegation could send a representative to the committee meeting.

Headquarters at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 29.—The republican state central committee met in Des Moines Tuesday and directed the opening of headquarters in the Equitable building. Later in the campaign a second headquarters will be opened nearer to the hotels. Chairman McMillen will have personal charge of the work done in the campaign, and he will be assisted by G. B. Pray, the right hand of the committee for several years. The gold democrats are trying to capture the democratic state convention, to be held at Ottumwa Aug. 12. The object is to prevent fusion with the populists on electors, and, if possible, to select electors who will not fuse on Sewall and Watson, and who will vote for McKinley rather than Bryan.

To Match the Big Men.

Washington, July 29.—It is regarded as almost certain that the democratic national committee will select Washington for its principal headquarters, and will have a branch in the west. It is the intention of the democratic managers not to recognize any issue except the money question in the campaign. They intend to keep that steadily to the front.

A challenge will be issued for a joint debate on the financial question, according to the following schedule: Teller against Sherman, Towne against Reed and Bryan against McKinley. It is said that Senator Lindsay of Kentucky has given assurances that he will support the democratic ticket, notwithstanding his gold views.

Thinks Bryan Will Accept.

Lincoln, Neb., July 29.—Governor Holcomb was on duty Tuesday, looking in good spirits and feeling somewhat better physically since his trip to the populist convention at St. Louis. He said he believed Mr. Bryan would accept the Populist nomination. As he lately held a lengthy interview with Mr. Bryan, the governor's opinion has a great deal of weight. The middle over vice president, he said, would be settled by fusion in different states, Sewall and Watson to take their chances in the electoral college. In Nebraska there would certainly be fusion, and the fusionists would carry the state.

Twenty Per Cent Wage Cut.

Hammond, Ill., July 29.—All foremen, superintendents, etc., employed at the G. H. Hammond packing establishment have been notified of a 20 per cent cut in their wages.

Bewildering almost those pretty new portraies at Bort, Bailey & Co.

MR. HANNA EXPECTS PAYNE TO RESIGN

WISCONSIN COMMITTEEMAN LIKELY TO QUIT.

The National Chairman Says That His Retirement Is Probable—Ill Health the Cause—Major Dick to Be in Charge in the Western Headquarters.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 29.—McKinley managers will not be surprised if Chairman Payne of Wisconsin withdraws from the Chicago headquarters. In fact, such action is expected, and is the main reason why Major Dick will be placed practically in charge of the headquarters in the west, where the real fight of the campaign will be made by Mr. Hanna and his assistants. The alleged reason of Mr. Payne's anticipated withdrawal, given at McKinley's Cleveland headquarters, is on account of ill health, but it is generally understood by those high up in the republican councils that the real and sole reason of Mr. Payne's desire to withdraw is because of the opposition of the trade-unionists of Chicago, Milwaukee and elsewhere.

May Put Up Secretary Morton.

Lincoln, Neb., July 30.—J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture, has been for a week or more at Arbor Lodge, his farm near Nebraska City. It has been generally reported in this city that he is here to pave the way to a presidential nomination. United States District Attorney Sawyer returned from Nebraska City, and the rumor spread that Mr. Morton contemplated announcing himself as a candidate for the presidential nomination at the hands of the gold democrats. The gold men will meet in conference in this city some day late this week to fix a date for a state convention, and there is a belief that that convention will put forward the name of the cabinet representative for president.

Colorado's Local Politics.

Denver, Colo., July 29.—The republican central committee meets here today to arrange the time and place for holding the state convention, which names the presidential electors and candidates for state offices. The silver men want to prevent the placing of McKinley electors on the Australian ballot this year, so as to completely disfranchise the McKinley following in Colorado. They want Bryan and Sewall electors to go on the republican state ticket. The republicans of Colorado are divided into three classes, McKinleyites, Bryan supporters and those favoring no presidential electors.

Mimms Is Named for Governor.

Nashville, Tenn., July 29.—The populist state convention to nominate a candidate for governor and appoint twelve electors met here Tuesday. The platform indorses the action of the St. Louis convention in all respects, and was adopted after a struggle. A. L. Mimms, who is permanent chairman of the convention, was nominated for governor.

Gold Reserve Still Growing.

Washington, July 29.—The Boston banks again came forward Tuesday with an offer of $1,000,000 in gold coin to the treasury, and Philadelphia offered $300,000. If the departments get all in sight the balance will be raised to $112,000,000. The withdrawals Tuesday were $209,300 in gold coin and $26,044 in bars, leaving the balance stand at $104,832,623.

Bike Beats the Empire Express.

Syracuse, N. Y., July 29.—When the westward-bound Empire State express was about two miles west of Syracuse Monday, it raced with six athletic young men on a sextuplet. For a quarter of a mile it was an even thing. At the end of a half-mile the sextuplet was four lengths ahead. The sextuplet was then obliged to slow down owing to a short bridge a quarter of a mile ahead. A number of railroad officers and bicycle men witnessed the race.

No Whisky for Eighteen Months.

Louisville, Ky., July 29.—The arbitration committee appointed by the Kentucky Distillers' association will report that the distillers have agreed to suspend for eighteen months. This agreement has been entered into by all but two of the larger concerns, and those interested express the belief that the plan will be successful.

Kentucky Gold Men Organize.

Louisville, Ky., July 29.—The gold democrats of Kentucky met here Tuesday. It took but a short time to decide upon a "sound-money" democratic convention, which is to be held at Louisville Aug. 20.

To Open Campaign in Illinois.

Chicago, July 29.—The republican campaign in Illinois will be opened Sept. 5, in this city, with Senator Joseph B. Foraker, Senator John M. Thurston, and in all probability Governors Bushnell and Hastings.

POLITICIANS ACTIVE IN ROCK COUNTY

KETTLE IS BEGINNING TO SIMMER AND BOIL.

Afton Men are Favorable to La Follette
John M. Whitehead Carries Fairfield—Caucuses at Milton Junction and Other Points—Storm at Emerald Grove—County News.

The political kettle is beginning to boil in Rock county, and many of the caucuses have been held. At Afton the delegates were instructed for La Follette for governor, and the name of the club was changed to the "Fairchild Republican Club of Afton."

The Fairfield caucus declared for John M. Whitehead for state senator. Afton, July 28.—The republicans of Rock townships met at Lawton's hall in this village last Saturday afternoon and named delegates to the various conventions to be held as follows: Assembly District Convention—F. P. Starr and U. G. Waite. County Convention—Peter Drafa and J. B. Humphrey. Senatorial Convention—William Gunn and S. E. Otis. Assembly Convention—T. M. B. Gunn and E. W. Fisher. Superintendent Convention—W. J. Miller and Benjamin Bleasdale. Republican Town Committee—U. G. Waite, Benjamin Bleasdale and C. B. Hinckley. Member of County Committee—U. G. Waite.

William Gunn was chairman of the caucus and W. M. Lawton secretary. J. B. Humphrey introduced the following resolution, which was adopted unanimously with much enthusiasm: "WHEREAS: The agricultural class of people appreciate the many and able efforts of Hon. Robert M. La Follette in their behalf, be it Resolved, that it is the sense of this convention that he be made the chief executive of this state." The Republican League club held a meeting last Friday evening, at which time the following delegates to the State League convention to be held at Milwaukee next month, were elected: S. E. Otis, James A. Drummond, U. G. Waite, Benjamin Bleasdale, Robert Jackson and David Throne. In honor of the memory and achievements of the late General Lucius Fairchild, it was voted to name the organization the "Fairchild Republican Club of Afton." Twelve new members were admitted. An adjourned meeting of the club was held at the close of the caucus Saturday afternoon, at which fifteen more names were added to the membership roll, thus making a total enrollment at present of thirty-eight. The next meeting of the club will be held Friday evening, August 14. The regular monthly meeting of the Baptist church will be held next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The heaviest rain that has visited this section for many years fell Sunday, and did much damage to crops. Two culverts on the Janesville road on the west side of the river were washed out. Half fell in the north part of the town, but not much damage is reported therefrom. The married men of Afton Camp No. 2192 M. W. A. have challenged the unmarried men of the camp to a game of base ball, to be played Saturday, August 8, at Afton. Fun may be looked for. Superintendent William Ross of Footville, was the guest of Superintendent Throne, Sunday. F. B. Eldredge and U. G. Waite spent a couple of days with White-water friends last week.

THE STORM AT THE GROVE.

The Rainfall Was the Heaviest of the Season—Other News.

Emerald Grove, July 28.—By far the heaviest rain fall in many years came down on us Saturday evening. It was preceded by a two inch fall about four o'clock and then during the evening something like three inches of water fell. The storm was accompanied by sharp lightning and thunder but no damage reported. Every ravine was filled and overflowing. Several acres of grain in the bundle was floated down into the villages where it lodged in fences and other corners. Corn was badly tangled up which will make it bad for the harvesters in cutting time. Not enough hail fell to damage tobacco near us but farther out we learn of crops entirely ruined. Rev. and Mrs. G. Hammond are at home again. They are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Beach of Chicago. A case containing a surgical instrument was found in the village, Monday morning. Let the owner call at the postoffice. J. R. Lamb enjoyed Saturday and Sunday at the Monona Lake assembly ground. Mrs. Alex. Robertson, who has been at Highland Park, Delavan, for a couple of weeks, has returned, and is now at her uncle's, John McArthur's. The town of Bradford had a number of small bridges damaged by Sunday night's storm. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Ransom are entertaining Mrs. Myron Green and family, of Janesville. Gillies & Jones have a nice line of every-day crockery. Richard Jones, of Harvard, came up Saturday, and will do some threshing for the next two weeks. He will be boss mechanic of the Jones & Wright outfit.

FAIRFIELD MEN FOR WHITEHEAD

Republicans Favor Him For State Senator—Other News.

Fairfield, July 20.—There was a good attendance at the republican caucus last Saturday, and a full list of delegates were chosen for the various conventions. The delegation strongly favors the nomination of J. M. Whitehead of Janesville, for state senator. During the storm Sunday night, lightning struck a barb wire fence on the farm of A. D. Clark and ran a distance of over forty rods, and for about twenty rods the wire was so burnt that only minute pieces of the melted metal can be found, one peculiar feature being that only a few of the staples and barbs were burned and none of the posts. Several persons in the neighborhood heard the bolt when it struck. The farmer began work to the music of the steam thrasher but the numerous showers have called a halt. The heavy storm of Sunday was a benefit to pastures, but a little more than the corn could stand. There will be a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hackwell on Thursday evening of this week. Ladies, please provide biscuit and cake. Rev. Botzer occupied the M. E. pulpit last Sunday and gave a very interesting discourse.

DEATH ENDS EARTHLY WOES

Halbert W. House.

Halbert W. House died at his home in the Waverley flats at 6:45 o'clock last evening after a painful illness of six or seven weeks duration, aged forty-six years.

Mr. House was employed as a conductor by the Chicago & Northwestern company and was one of the most popular men in the company's service. He came to this city to reside last fall, from Baraboo and since that time had resided here. For several years he had been suffering with a complication of diseases, and once before, at Milwaukee, had an attack similar to the one that caused his death. His final illness had been of some two months duration, but Mr. House had borne his sufferings patiently and made a hard fight for life. Yesterday a letter was received from the superintendent of the C. & N. W. road, asking Mr. House to come to Chicago for a rest and a vacation, but it was not to be, and the rest into which the tired spirit entered a few hours afterward, was eternal.

Mr. House was a member of the Masonic order, belonging to the lodge at Baraboo, and also a member of the Order of Railway Conductors. Besides a widow he leaves a niece and nephew, Miss Hattie and Harry Keating of this city.

CAUCUSES ARE HELD IN FOUR WARDS

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES HELD LAST NIGHT.

County Convention Delegates Are For Chief Acheson For Sheriff; While the Assembly District Convention Delegates Favor the Nomination of R. M. La Follette For Governor.

Janesville republicans selected delegates to the county, and to the assembly district conventions last night. The men who will attend the former meeting are all for Chief of Police Theodore L. Acheson for sheriff, while the assembly convention delegates are very nearly unanimous for La Follette for governor.

There was a contest at all the caucuses, between the friends of Chief Acheson, and L. M. Nelson, the two candidates for sheriff, but the Acheson men were successful in each instance.

There was no opposition to the selection of the assembly convention delegates, the La Follette list being the only one distributed at any of the primaries, and there being very little scratching.

HOT WEATHER DYSPEPSIA.

Thousands Suffer From It This Season of the Year.

Hot weather dyspepsia may be recognized by the following symptoms: Depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, loss of flesh and appetite, no desire for food, bad taste in the mouth, especially in the morning, wind in stomach and bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness, weariness, costiveness, headache, palpitation, heartburn. It is a mistake to treat such troubles with "tonics," "blood purifiers," "cathartics," "pills," because the whole trouble is in the stomach. It is indigestion or dyspepsia and nothing else.

All these symptoms rapidly disappear when the stomach is relieved, strengthened, and cleansed by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They should be taken after meals and a few carried in the pocket to be used whenever any pain or distress is felt in the stomach. They are prepared only for stomach troubles. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are endorsed by such physicians as Dr. Harlandson, Dr. Jennison, and Dr. Mayer, because they contain the natural digestive acids and fruit essences which when taken into the stomach cause the prompt digestion of the food before it has time to ferment and sour, which is the cause of the mischief.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are pleasant to take and unequalled for invalids, children and every person afflicted with imperfect digestion. It is safe to say they will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Nearly all the druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized packages at 50 cents. A book on stomach troubles and thousands of testimonials sent free by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Repairs Are Only Temporary—Many Visitors At the Scene.

The C. & N. W. wreck near the Black bridge has not been entirely cleared away, and a number of the broken cars are still in evidence. Three of them are still at the bottom of the 20 foot embankment. The wreck being so near the city hundreds of visitors have been in attendance, and at one time there were nine amateur photographers on the spot ready for work. The convention adopted F. A. Baker's Bennett law resolution as follows:

RESOLVED, That in behalf of the republicans of this county of every nationality and religion, we condemn as unfair and unrepentant, the effort to make it appear that there is any connection between the so called Bennett law question and the candidacy of Hon. R. M. La Follette, for the republican nomination for governor. Such effort is unrepentant, because the republican party now and for years past has recognized the so called Bennett law question as forever settled. It is unfair, because it seeks to prejudice Mr. La Follette's candidacy for having given to the law the same measure of support accorded it by many thousands of the most prominent republicans in the state, including all the gentlemen who are now candidates for the republican nomination for governor.

Instructed For La Follette.
F. M. Crow's resolution, also adopted unanimously, was as follows:

RESOLVED, By the republican electors of the Second Assembly district of Rock county, in convention assembled, that we recognize the high character, great ability and invaluable public services of our neighbor and friend, Hon. R. M. La Follette.

RESOLVED, Further, that the delegates here this day chosen, be and they are instructed to support said Robert M. La Follette in the approaching state convention, and to use all honorable means to secure his nomination upon the republican ticket for the governorship of Wisconsin.

ARREST THE GUESTS WHO CAME UNASKED

SIX YOUNG MEN TO BE TAKEN INTO COURT.

They Attended a Party at John Brennan's Home At Which They "Were Not Expected"—"Sleeper" Tried to Best Chief Acheson—Liquor Case On Trial.

Warrants were issued today for the arrest of six well known young men, who are said to have raised Ned, Saturday evening, at the Locust street home of John Brennan. Invitations were issued a few days ago for a party to be given at the Brennan residence and the six young men in question were not invited. However, they attended the party and undertook to run the entire affair much against the wish of the host and hostess.

Mr. Brennan was finally compelled to throw them bodily out of the house. Officer Hogan was notified but arrived too late, so today warrants were issued.

"Sleeper" Showed Fight.

MORRIS SWALLOWS THE PILL.

County Chairman For Free Silver—Other Democrats Bolt Bryan and Sewall.

F. R. Morris, of Milton, chairman of the Rock county democratic committee, who administered the gag to the free silver democrats at the democratic county convention some time ago, has gone back on the golden cause, and swallows Bryan & Sewall, free silver, anarchy and all.

But there are other Milton democrats who do not "follow his leader." For instance:

Professor J. B. Bordon, one of the brightest young democrats in the county, expresses himself as follows: I will not vote for Bryan. He is an unsafe man for president, and the forces that brought about his nomination were populist, not democratic. Unless I change my mind, shall cast my vote for McKinley.

W. H. Borden, M. D. Wheel-horse of the Party—I am much disappointed in the platform and candidates of the Chicago convention, and unless a more careful study of both places them in a different light than they now appear to me, do not think I can consistently give either my support.

Frank M. Palmer, a Leading Merchant—I am not in favor of the populist free silver platform adopted at Chicago, and will not support a candidate on that platform. A gold standard democratic ticket is needed for which honest-money democrats will cast their votes.

P. Tomkins—I will not support the Bryan ticket. Neither candidate nor platform are worthy of democratic support. I will vote for a gold standard and democrat, if one is placed in nomination.

CLINTON TO HAVE A NICE DEPOT

Railway Company Will Put Up a Very Neat Building.

The new depot at Clinton was staked out on Wednesday last and is to be twenty-one feet deep, with a bay window in front, in which will be the ticket offices. The building is to run along each of the two tracks for thirty-eight feet. Adjoining the ticket office will be the waiting rooms, one on either side, and beyond these are the express and baggage rooms. The posts will be 12:04 high and the peak of the roof, which is to be of slate, will be twenty feet, aside from the cupola. It is to be built of brick with stone sills, and caps. Work will be commenced in the very near future. The platform is to be fourteen feet wide.

The membership list of the Y. M. C. A. is growing rapidly and Secretary Kline is much encouraged at the outlook. The committee are hard at work and merchants throughout the city are helping the work by joining the ranks.

Postponed.

Owing to the very elaborate preparations for the production of the Evolution of a New World, which was announced for tonight at the opera house, the management have decided that for more thorough rehearsal and the complete presentation of certain features, where over one hundred people are engaged and fifty-two children representing the states and territories, working together with the full military company and military band, a postponement for a few days is necessary. Full particulars as to date, etc., will be given through the papers and by dodgers. All holders of tickets can retain the same, with the seats reserved.

LACK OF LALLAGAG NOT SUFFICIENT

BELOIT WOMAN IS REFUSED A DIVORCE.

Witness Said the Defendant Was All Right, But that He Was "No Lallagagger," An Expression That the Court Did Not Understand—Application Was Denied.

A divorce case out of the usual line occupied the attention of Judge John R. Bennett in the Circuit Court yesterday, the interested parties being Mrs. Lema B. Glenn and John C. Glenn.

Both parties are well known and reside in Beloit. Mrs. Glenn, who was represented by Attorney Silas Menzie, applied for the divorce on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, but Attorney Richmond who appeared in behalf of Mr. Glenn denied the charge and the divorce was not granted. During the trial several witnesses testified.

"There was not enough lallagging done," one of them who hailed from Beloit, declared, in speaking of the troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn.

"Enough what?" asked the court, who did not know what that word meant.

"Why, lallagging—that means hugging and kissing," replied the witness, in a tone that indicated surprise that he should not have made himself plain. "Glenn was all right, from what I can hear, but he was no lallagager."

The court decided, however, that the evidence was insufficient, and refused to grant the decree. The defendant works in the Eclipse shops in the Line City.

WHAT IS MONEY?

Money, my boy, is silver and gold
Or a piece of pictured paper,
And they who possess it manifold
May cut any kind of a caper.

Money, my boy, is a worshiped god
And a dearly treasured idol,
Used often as a divining rod
At burial, birth and bridal.

Money, my boy, does a world of good
And more than worlds of evil—
Good when poured from the hand of God,
Bad if dealt out by the devil.

Money, my boy, does not grow on trees,
Is not always had for the asking,
Nor gathered in pocket from every breeze
Without much deceit and masking.

Money, my boy, will buy place and power,
Husbands and wives and divorces—
Truthful and false in selfsame hour,
Marshaling all kinds of forces.

Money, my boy, it is sad to say,
Buys "body, soul and breeches;"
Is a curse to those who day by day
Live only to hoard up riches.

Money, my boy, both rich and poor
Fall down on their knees before it.
No matter how it may come to their door,
All are quick to receive and adore it.

Money, my boy, "What is it?" you ask,
As if it were something funny.
A correct reply is no easy task,
For money is nothing but money.

Money, my boy, alone by itself
Is naught but a name for riches,
And whether well or ill gotten is self,
That hinders and helps and bewitches.

But money, my boy, don't pass it by
When skies grow bright and sunny,
For it's ten to one that before you die
You'll find it handy to have some money.
—Good Housekeeping.

A MATRIMONIAL JAR.

It might have remained there a long time, Picket's new hat, if Mrs. Picket did not repeat every time her eyes fell upon it:

"What in the world possessed you to buy another new hat when you leave it there for weeks without ever opening the box it came in?"

"But," said Picket, "I have not worn it because you keep telling me that my old one looks all right."

"Yes, and you already have 27 hats that you have quit wearing, and you leave them in your closet covered with dust. What in the world do you keep them for? Why don't you throw them away?"

"Throw them away! And yet you know very well that you never throw anything away. You would not throw away a match that had been already lighted. You're so fond of saying, 'It might come in handy.'"

"Well," said Mrs. Picket, "it is true that I never throw away things that might come in handy, but how can old hats ever come in handy? What sense is there in piling up old hats which are of no use to any one when there are so many poor creatures who walk the streets barefooted?"

"But," said Picket, "they could not wear my hats on their bare feet."

"I don't see anything funny in that," said Mrs. Picket icily. "You know what I mean. You needn't pretend that you don't understand me. Why don't you send for an old clothes man and sell him your hats?"

"I never think of it."

"I'd like to know what you do think of. I don't think you think at all. But do as you please. Buy new hats; wear them; don't wear them. It's your own affair." Mrs. Picket concluded with saying, "You make me tired," and she retired from the room, slamming the door with a violence which made the chandelier rattle.

"Such is married life," said the stupefied Picket, gazing after his wife. "Whether I do a thing or don't do it, I am certain not to please my wife. Take that new hat, for example! 'What did you buy it for,' said she, 'when you never wear it?' and the first day that I put it on to go out she will be sure to say, 'What are you wearing your new hat for when the other one is all right still?'"

Some days afterward Picket said to his wife, "I am going out."

"Indeed," said Mrs. Picket. "Where are you going?"

"I am going to see poor Marley, who is ill."

"And do you put on your new hat to see poor Marley?"

"Just what I expected you to say," remarked Picket. "Yes, that is what I am going to do. I am going to wear my new hat. See?"

"Well, why don't you throw your old one in the closet with the others?"

With rising rage Picket took up his old hat, opened the closet door and hurled the hat into the closet.

"There," said he, "I hope you will give me a rest on this hat business!"

"That makes the twenty-eighth," replied Mrs. Picket, with a burst of sardonic laughter.

Picket went out. He started toward Marley's house, but he had scarcely gone more than a couple of blocks when it began to rain.

"There," said the unfortunate Picket. "Just my luck. Beginning to rain. Got a new hat on and no umbrella."

He started into a neighboring doorway to wait until the shower should cease, and as he did so a man carrying a long plank on his shoulder turned and swept the unfortunate Picket's hat from his head into the gutter.

Cursing like a pirate, the luckless Picket pursued his new hat and rescued it from the gutter, much damaged and covered with mud. A passing good Samaritan stopped and said to him:

"There's a hatter a couple of doors up the street there. He will brush it off and touch it up with the iron, and it will be all right."

"Thank you," said Picket, and he repaired to the hatter's. When he had his hat polished, he stood upon the doorstep for a moment, and, not wishing again to expose his hat to the fury of the elements, he determined to step into a friendly restaurant next door, where he would wait until the storm was over.

He went in, seated himself at a table, hung up his hat on one of the hooks over his head, ordered a sandwich and began to look over the paper. But he could not take his mind away from the satirical welcome which he knew his wife would extend to him when he returned with his damaged hat. However, the Rubicon had to be crossed. The rain had ceased. He rose, and, still reflecting on his wife's reception, took a hat from the hook and was about to go when two waiters came up to him and grabbed him by the collar.

"Now we've got him," said one. "Yes," said the other; "we've got him now. This is the fellow who has been stealing hats."

Picket, paralyzed with astonishment, protested. "What! I steal hats?" he said. "What do you mean?"

"You will have an opportunity to explain this at the police station," was the reply, and the proprietor, who had whistled for a policeman at the door, turned him over to the hands of a blue coated guardian of the peace. The unfortunate Picket was yanked along the street, followed by a crowd of passers-by, who applauded his arrest, and a number of street boys, who signified their disapproval more forcibly by hurling mud at him. When the party reached the police station, the proprietor of the restaurant made his complaint to the sergeant there.

"That's the man," said he. "For the last two weeks some scoundrel has been coming to my restaurant, and whenever he goes out somebody misses a hat. We have been watching for him. Now we've got him. There he is. This is the thief. We caught him in the very act."

"But I was simply mistaken in the hat," cried Picket. "If I were stealing a hat, I would have two here, but I haven't. This is not mine, but you will find mine hanging on the hook."

"Yes," said the restaurant man, "I know. Ordinarily you were in the habit of carrying a gripsack in which you put the other hat. This time you came without it."

"But I am an honest man," persisted the unfortunate Picket. "I am well known. Let the officer go to my house and he will see." He gave his name and his address, and the sergeant, wavering in the face of his protestations, sent an officer to accompany him to the address given. In about half an hour the officer returned, bearing an enormous pile of hats.

"Here sergeant," said the latter, "see what I found in the fellow's house. His wife had gone out, and it was the servant who let me in."

"Well," said the sergeant severely, looking at the accused person, "do you still deny that you are a hat thief?" gazing at the gigantic pile of hats.

"I deny it. I deny it in toto," said the unfortunate Picket. "I bought these hats. I don't wear them, but I bought them."

"You don't wear them. What in the world can you do with 28 hats?"

"Well, my wife has always told me to sell them to an old clothes man. I never think of it, I am so forgetful. Why, today I even forgot my umbrella. I never had any head."

"You have no head? What do you want with 28 hats, then?"

But at this moment a weeping woman entered the police station. It was Mrs. Picket. She had heard from the servant of the plight in which her luckless husband was placed and came and told the police sergeant who he was and that the hats were really his. But was Picket grateful to her? Hardly. He wished a thousand times that she had not heard about his misadventure and that he had succeeded in going through all the pains and horrors of a police court far rather than that she should find him there with the 28 hats—28 mute witnesses of her superior judgment staring him in the face. He said to himself mentally, "Never shall I hear the last of those 28 hats." He never did. In fact, he got it morning, noon and night. He had it with breakfast, lunch and dinner. He had it with his soup. He had it with his nightcap. He had it with his morning slippers. And whenever the rain began falling and poor Picket would incautiously say, "What dreadful weather!" "Yes," Mrs. Picket would reply, "exactly the same kind of a day as when you got rid of your 28 hats."—San Francisco Argonaut.

England and Her Friends.

England as a nation has not and rarely has had a friend. She is isolated, and the world delights to impress her isolation upon her. Once, indeed, she drew very close to Holland, so close that, after fighting her battles for two generations, she offered to make one republic with her, but the only results were seven of the fiercest naval engagements ever known and the ousting of the Dutch from their dominion of the sea. The only European people who having passed from under our rule conspired to return to it were the Gascons at the close of the hundred years' war. There can be no more curious example of the caprices of national friendship than this. Normandy and Brittany, nearer to us in breed, climate and position, joyfully cast us out, and the hot blooded province of the south, for all that it had once rebelled against the Black Prince, entreated us to stay.

With Scotland the case was different. She had for many hundred years a friendship, hardly extinguished until the middle of the last century, which brought woes unnumbered both upon England and herself and many times threatened to overwhelm England altogether. So surely as an English expedition went to France down came the Scots across the border. The victory of Neville's Cross was won when Edward III lay before Calais; the victory of Flodden was won when Henry VIII lay before Tournay. The story was eternally the same.

If that you will France win,
Then with Scotland first begin.

Nothing could shake the friendship of France and Scotland, and it was when France was in her direst need that Scotland came forward to help her in her own territory and for reward received the high privilege of guarding the sacred person of the French king. —Macmillan's Magazine.

A GREAT STRATEGIST.

Willing to Fight, Bleed and Die for His Country.

A fiery-looking party with his hand tucked into the bosom of his coat and his mustachios bristling like the angry re-front of war walked into the Washington Star office the other morning and approached the editor of the crank department.

"Excuse me, sir," he said, with a weeping bow, "but may I speak with you a moment on a matter of importance?"

The editor wondered whether it was going to be a dime or a quarter, but told the visitor to proceed.

"I want to publish a card in your paper, sir, but before doing so I desire to obtain a few facts relative hereto."

"Go on with your rat-killing," said the editor, with pleasing and easy familiarity.

The visitor frowned slightly but went on.

"I desire to ask, sir," he said, "if there is any probability of war between the United States and Great Britain."

"None in the least."

"Nor any with Spain?"

"Still less."

"Do you know of any other country we may have trouble with?"

"None."

"And would you say we shall have a period of absolute peace for the next ten years?"

"I'll bet my salary for that time on it in advance."

"Then if you will be so kind I would be pleased to have you publish this article in your valuable journal over my signature, sir," and the visitor extended a formidable looking document, tied with red tape, toward the editor.

"What is it about?" inquired the editor, taking it gingerly.

The visitor straightened himself up proudly.

"It is an appeal, sir, to the patriots of this great and glorious republic, sir, to defend the nation's honor at whatever cost of blood and treasure, sir, and that article announces that I desire to enlist a thousand men at once who will be ready at a moment's notice to lay down their lives with me at their head in defense of liberty and our native land. We must defy all foreign governments, sir, and effete monarchies, and I desire to go upon the record, sir, as a patriot with blood to shed upon my country's altar."

The editor applauded the valor of the visitor, told him there were hundreds like him and took the communication under advisement where it still is.

SUFFRAGE A GOOD THING.

Its Practical Working in Australia Meets with the Approbation of Men.

Mrs. Henry Hirst, an Australian author, according to the New York World, in some recent remarks on the effect of woman's franchise in New Zealand, said among other things:

"Men of all shades of political opinion and at daggers drawn on other points agree that the granting of the vote to women has been beneficial to the colony."

"Mr. Seddon, the premier, has said: 'Woman's influence at the elections, and since has been productive of much good; they are looking well after the interests of their children, the mitigation of the liquor traffic, the alteration of the jail regulations with regard to having female inspectors for women, and other vital affairs.'"

"The leader of the opposition believed that the women had done much to purify the 'house,' and that their influence would yet be more beneficial in the same direction."

"The consensus of colonial opinion appears to be that the express tendency of the female vote is in favor of promoting the solid happiness of the individuals who compose the community."

"Domestic life has not been disturbed or even ruffled by the female portion of the household possessing votes, and the women in the exercise of their new privileges have shown sound judgment, great discretion and no small amount of independent thought."

"In several instances women have headed the class lists in Melbourne university; out of nine scholarships one was divided between a lady and a gentleman, three were carried off by women, and of two bachelor of science degrees, one was taken by a woman, another lady gaining one of the two degrees of master of science."

Woman the Triumph of Creation.

A new argument for the general superiority and all-rightness of women was advanced recently at the Professional Woman's league. The speaker, Dr. Wilcox, was telling of a discussion she once had with a Virginia clergyman, who believed that women were quite inferior to men in intellect.

"You believe in the Bible?" she asked.

"You believe in the first two chapters of Genesis? Well, if you will cast your mind over the history told in those two chapters you will find that in the creation God began with the lowest. Inanimate things came first, then the lower animals, up through the different grades, and what was the last thing he created?"

"Man," was the triumphant answer.

"Indeed, no. When God had created man he was quite dissatisfied. He then made woman and has rested ever since."

CECIL RHODES' WORK.

In His Youth He Had Acquired a Fortune.

When vague rumors first got about that Germany had formed the conception of establishing colonies in Africa the reports were ridiculed by Lord Granville, then secretary of state for foreign affairs, on the ground that the Germans were not a colonizing people, and it was evidently felt by himself and his colleagues in Mr. Gladstone's government of that day that Germany was not and never would become a serious competitor of Great Britain in any part of the world outside Europe, says the Contemporary Review. Owing to the prevalence of this opinion in the minds not only of the government of the day but of most well-informed people in England, Germany, as a matter of fact, stole a march on Great Britain.

About this time the Transvaal, which had a few years before regained its independence, conceived the project of stretching across Bechuanaland and joining hands with the German protectorate on the west coast. Freebooting expeditions set out from the Transvaal and established in Bechuanaland the republics of Stellaland and Goshen.

The understanding between the Germans and the Boers of which so much has been heard really dates from this time. A few far-seeing believers in the British imperial idea then perceived what the carrying out of this design would mean for British supremacy in South Africa. It would cut the Cape Colony entirely off from extension northward into the admittedly rich and promising regions beyond the confines of the colony. Long before this time explorers like Thomas Baines, Hartley and others had sent home glowing reports of the riches hidden in the soil of Matabeleland, Mashonaland and the adjoining territories. The one man who must be credited with the practical frustration of this scheme is Mr. Cecil Rhodes, who was then quite a youth, sitting as an unofficial member of the Cape assembly, but had already acquired a fortune in the diamond fields at Kimberley.

The imperial government, having been tardily aroused to the danger, dispatched Sir Charles Warren with a military expedition to protect British interests in Bechuanaland and to settle the tribal disputes which were being fostered by the Boers at the time, the eventual result of which was, thanks largely to Mr. Rhodes, who had been appointed assistant commissioner of the disorganized territories that the Boers had to haul down the flag which they had hoisted in their petty new republics and a British protectorate was proclaimed over the whole area.

BRITAIN'S NEW-WORLD FORCES

Headquarters of English Possessions Are at Barbadoes.

Halifax, N. S., 2,400 miles from England, possesses a magnificent harbor, which is the principal winter port of Canada and the entrepot of a considerable trade with the West Indies, South America and Great Britain, says the National Review. It is also the headquarters of our North American squadron of seven cruisers, whose arsenal, coal yard and dry dock are well protected by the fortress. The garrison consists of two companies of artillery, two companies of engineers and one battalion of infantry. The Bermudas, consisting of 100 islands, situated 580 miles east of Carolina, in the United States, possesses a fortified harbor and floating dock capable of affording minor repairs to cruisers. Its garrison comprises two companies of artillery, two companies of engineers and one battalion of infantry. Jamaica, ninety miles south of Cuba, has one fortified coaling station, several undefended harbors, but no dock. Its garrison is one company of artillery, one and one-half companies of West India engineers, half battalion West India troops, and one and three-eighths battalions British infantry. St. Lucia, an island situated 200 miles north of Venezuela, has in the past been the scene of many a desperate fight between French and English, in consequence of which it frequently changed hands during the last century. Port Castries—one of the finest harbors in the West Indies—is a fortified naval depot and coaling station in which warships can coal close alongside the wharf. There is no dock. Its garrison comprises one company of British and one company of St. Lucia artillery and a small detachment of infantry. The headquarters of the English possessions in the West Indies are at Barbadoes, where we have one section of West India engineers, one and five-eighths battalions British and half a battalion of West India infantry.

Kipling and Stockton.

Rudyard Kipling and Frank R. Stockton met each other at a reception some time ago. The latter informed the famous Englishman that he seriously contemplated a visit to India. "I'm glad to hear it," exclaimed Kipling enthusiastically. "You see," he went on, "I know just what we'll do with you over there when we get you away from your friends and family. We'll lure you into the jungle and have you seized and bound by our trusty wallahs. We'll have you turned over on your back and get one of our biggest elephants to stand over you with its forefoot poised above your head. Then I'll say in my most insinuating way: 'Come now, Stockton, which was it—The Lady or the Tiger?'"—New York Journal.

Jesus.

The whole life of Jesus was beautiful, and such a life as only a divine being could live. His miracles were those which only God could perform, and in them, while in the mortal flesh of man, he proved he was at the same time God.—Rev. George T. Mahony.

There is a right way to advertise any business, and it is comparatively easy to find this right way. There need be no unreasonable chances taken. The advertiser's problem is simply to get his story before the people who are likely to be interested—simply a plain, straightforward statement of what he wishes to do for them. To be sure it requires thought and judgment to do this in the right way, but no more than any other department of a business.

MADE 100 YEARS AGO. We have secured the novelty of novelties, novel because so old.

Old English Blue Porcelain Ware, One Hundred Years Old.

We believe that ours is the only crate of this ware that has come to America for fifty years. Quaint and antique, it is the envy of modern fashion. These dinner sets are on exhibition and whoever wants to can see them. They are for people who like sensational oddity—and that means about everybody.
